Item 8.01 Other Events/Information

The Company has the objective to bring its financial filings current. To achieve this aim, the Company is considering a shareholder rights offering, the proceeds of which would be to fund the work required in upgrading its reporting status.

Company will canvas its shareholders to determine the level of interest in a rights offering as a means to finance the administration of the Company.

None of the Company's directors are able to participate in a share offering and there are no parties that the Company is aware of that have expressed an interest in participating in an offering
